

THE GARDENS GRANARA

What it could be instead of bedroom?

- Home Gym
- Pool service route for workers

This space is ideal for a home gym because it offers a spacious open layout, plenty of natural light and ventilation through large sliding doors, privacy from enclosed walls, durable flooring that can be upgraded, and direct access to the pool for seamless post-workout recovery.

As you can see on the map, the workers' work route does not have to go through the house. Which is where your valuables are kept.
